DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Goodwin U.S. Patent Application Publication US 2002/0059131.

Referring to claim 1. Goodwin discloses a method for preparing and presenting entitled offerings to guest participants in online offerings a auctions, said guest participants including guest brokers, bidders, buyers and traders, said method comprising the steps of:

- Providing a profile for each guest in a computer-readable record (Fig. 2, User Profiles”), each profile containing one or more entitlement definitions (paragraph 0125) indicating allowable items which a guest may receive information but for which is "read-only" and is to be restricted from placing bids (paragraph 0110 to paragraph 0111);
- Preparing one or more entitled offerings through filtering an available items list according to said profiles such that said prepared entitled offerings include only offerings for one or more items to which a guest is allowed offers as defined by the guest's entitlement definitions (paragraph 0125); and

- Presenting via a computer user interface said entitled offerings to one or more guests such that each guest may review his or her entitled offerings (Fig. 3 and paragraph 0061).

Referring to claim 2. Goodwin discloses a method wherein said step of providing a profile with entitlement definitions comprises providing an item category parameter within said entitlement definitions (paragraph 0144).

Referring to claim 3. Goodwin discloses a method wherein said step of providing a profile with entitlement definitions comprises providing a guest location parameter within said entitlement definitions (paragraph 0110 to paragraph 0111).

Referring to claim 4. Goodwin discloses a method wherein said step of preparing one or more entitled offerings comprises removing items from said available items list which are unmatched by a category parameter within a guest's entitlement definition to produce a minimized list of items for which a guest is entitled to receive offerings (paragraph 0125).

Referring to claim 5. Goodwin discloses a method wherein said step of preparing one or more entitled offers comprises removing items from said available items list which are unmatched by a guest's location parameter within an entitlement definition to produce a minimized list of items for which a guest is entitled to receive offerings (Table 1, "Search for financial product by: Geographic Location...").

Referring to claim 6. Goodwin discloses a method wherein said step of presenting via a computer user interface said entitled offerings to one or more guests comprises presenting said entitled offerings via a web browser user interface (Fig. 3 and paragraph 0061).

Referring to claim 7. Goodwin discloses a method comprising disabling and restricting bid attempts from said guest for items that are indicated as "read-only" in the guest's profile (paragraph 0110 to paragraph 0111).

Referring to claim 8. Goodwin discloses a method comprising enabling bid attempts from said guest for items that are indicated as "entitled" in the guest's profile (paragraph 0125).

Referring to claims 9-16. Claims 9-16 are rejected under the same rationale as set forth above in claims 1-8.

Referring to claim 17. Goodwin discloses an offering system in a computer network for preparing and presenting entitled offerings to guests of online offer and auction systems, said guests including brokers, buyers, bidders and traders, said computer network enabling communications between said online offer system and guest consoles, said offering system comprising:

- A database containing entitled sales offerings, said database accessible and queriable by network application servers (paragraph 0125 and paragraph 0110 to paragraph 0111);
- An entitled offering preparation server for preparing entitled offerings through filtering lists of available items against guest entitlement parameters to produce entitled offerings including one or more items to which a guest is entitled to receive information and for which a guest is restricted to bid, and for storing entitled sales offerings in said database (paragraph 0125 and paragraph 0110 to paragraph 0111); and

- A network application server for providing sales offerings to guest console computers (Fig. 2).

Referring to claim 18. Goodwin discloses an offering system wherein said network application server is an Internet server (abstract).

Referring to claim 19. Goodwin discloses an offering system wherein said network application server is a Hyper Text Transfer Protocol (HTTP) server (paragraph 0052).

Referring to claim 20. Goodwin discloses an offering system wherein said network application server is a secure Hyper Text Transfer Protocol (HTTPS) server (paragraph 0052).

Referring to claim 21. Goodwin discloses an offering system wherein said network application server is adapted for communications with guest console computers that are web browser devices (abstract).

Referring to claim 22. Claim 22 is rejected under the same rationale as set forth above in claims 1-8.

Referring to claim 23. Claim 23 is rejected under the same rationale as set forth above in claims 1-8.
